

Cloquet Juniors Parent/Player Contract

Welcome! Accepting a position with the Cloquet Juniors is a commitment to improving yourself as a player and as a person. This is a commitment involving yourself, your family, and your team. In order to ensure that we all understand what this commitment is, we have outlined player and parental responsibilities and conduct guidelines below. Please read them carefully and understand them and then sign this contract.

Players will:

- Treat coaches, fellow players, teammates and opponents with respect.
- Display a positive work ethic at all times.
- Attend all practices/competitions except when your coach has been notified and the coach or director excuses absence.
- Not use repetitive offensive language or behavior.
- Not have possession of or be under the influence of harmful drugs or alcohol, will not possess harmful weapons, will not initiate inappropriate behavior while representing the Cloquet Juniors Program.
- Obey the rules of the USAV Code of Conduct.

Serious Player violations can result in a dismissal from the team at the discretion of the coach and/or director.

Parents/Guardians will:

- Support players and coaches in their efforts to improve themselves.
- Allow the coaches to evaluate, coach, and manage the team without interference.
- Not discuss coach's decisions including playing time, or game/practice management until 24 hrs after the conclusion of a tournament or practice.
- Avoid negative comments concerning coaches, players and officials.
- Direct all questions and comments concerning the team to the Club Director.
- Transport players to and from practices, tournaments and other club activities.
- Be your child's biggest fan!

Serious Parent violations can result in a dismissal from the team at the discretion of the coach and/or director.

Understanding the above, we agree to participate in the 2021/2022 Cloquet Juniors season. We understand that signing this contract commits us to Cloquet Juniors.

As the player and parent/guardian, we understand the commitment we are making.
